

ARBRIT SAFETY TRAINING & CONSULTANCY

Managing Safely – IOSH

Training Description

The IOSH Managing Safely Certificate is a dynamic and practical Health & Safety training course designed to educate line managers on their Health, Safety and Environmental responsibilities and, to build the confidence to put it all into practice.

Who should attend?

This course is designed for line managers, supervisors and individuals responsible for teams or groups of employees who require a basic knowledge of Health & Safety.

Delegate Numbers: The minimum number of delegates is 10 and numbers should not exceed 15

Training Objectives

This course aims to cover all major HSE issues and provide delegates with the right level of knowledge and practical experience needed to manage key issues within their teams.

Assessment

- An objective (short answer) test
- A practical assessment in the workplace

Certification: IOSH, UK

Validity: Lifelong

Course Content

This course covers 8 units

- Module 1: Introducing Managing Safely
- Module 2: Assessing risks
- Module 3: Controlling risks
- Module 4: Understanding your responsibilities
- Module 5: Identifying hazards
- Module 6: Investigating accidents and incidents
- Module 7: Measuring performance
- Module 8: Protecting our environment

Course Method

On completion of the IOSH Managing Safely course candidates should be able to:

- Identify their responsibilities for health and safety
- Explain the reasons for preventing workplace accidents
- Explain the reasons for preventing occupational ill health
- Define 'hazard', 'risk' and 'risk assessment'
- Identify common hazards in the work place
- Outline the requirements for the control of waste and pollution
- Identify the best techniques to control key risks
- Identify the demands of the law and how the legal system works
- Describe a health and safety management system
- Identify why and how accidents should be investigated
- Outline basic performance indicators for monitoring activities
- Carry out a risk assessment